

Target identification

Identification of disease relevant target

Hit discovery

Identification of molecules with desired activity against the target

Hit-to-lead

Improvement of on-target activity of identified hits

Lead optimization

Joint optimization of whole property profile

Pre-clinical development

Further optimization and in vivo tests

Clinical development

Confirmation of efficacy and safety in humans.